Russian Emigrants Transport Hoard of Silver Coinage Into U.S.

The ability of Russians to leave the Soviet Union is a matter all of us are familiar with. We recently met a lovely couple who emigrated to the U.S. and with them came their only valuables which consisted of a silver coin collection. We found them very interesting people who spoke the English language very well and were able to purchase their collection. We found that the collection was put together in the mid 1920's and most of the coins are in excellent condition.

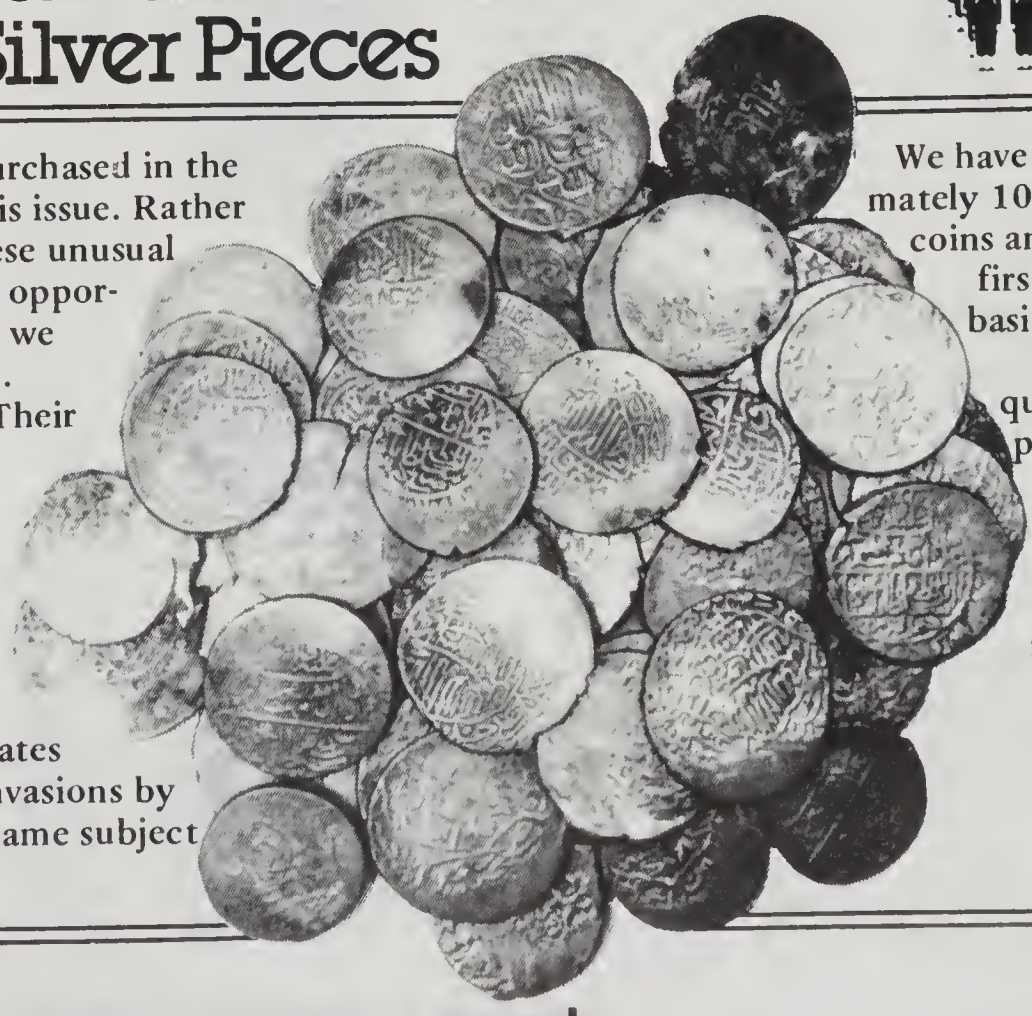
Hoard of Russian Turkestan Silver Pieces



This unusual selection of silver coins was purchased in the group of old Russian coinage featured in this issue. Rather than go to the effort of cataloging all of these unusual pieces we have put together a most unusual opportunity for our readers. You catalog them as we will save you the cost of normal attribution. Their weight averages 4.6 grams per piece. Their average condition is a solid Very Fine.

Turkestan is the name of a region of low plateaus and desert plains between Siberia to the north, Chinese Sinkiang and Afganistan on the south, the Caspian Sea to the west, and Mongolia and the Gobi desert on the east. The area was organized as tribal states briefly and virtually left alone during the invasions by the Mongols. By 1900 the entire region became subject to Russian Rule.

We have obtained approximately 100 of these unusual coins and offer these on a first come first served basis. Act promptly as our supply will go quickly at this super price of just $14.50 each.

ANTIQUITIES

MORE ANTIQUITIES FROM THE IDC STOCK

Half of the approximately 300 firms selling gems for investment in the U. S. during the 1980 peak are now out of business according the Jeweler's Circular. The collapse of one of the largest such companies International Diamond Corporation, with annual sales of more than $150 million has resulted in an unexpected dividend for ancient coin and antiquity collectors.

At the peak of its prosperity, IDC decided to broaden its product line. . . and formed a subdivision, Intercontinental Antiquity Corporation (IAC), that offered genuine antiquities and ancient coins to its clients. These were mostly from ancient Israel, with some Greek, Roman and Egyptian pieces. They were purchased by descriptive certificates and color photographs.

The diamond investing bubble burst, bringing all activities of IAC to a halt, and bankruptcy was declared. Competitive proposals were submitted and Superior Stamp & Coin Co., Inc. was chosen by the court appointed trustee as the prime seller of the extensive antiquity and ancient coin stock. The inventory of more than 1,300 antiquities and about 700 ancient coins can be seen at our office.

The antiquities will be offered in this and subsequent issues of "MoneyTalks" and by our Biblical Numismatic Society. Prices are as low as $25 for a 2,000-year-old oil lamp, or a glass vial undamaged by the centuries, lain undisturbed in an ancient tomb.

This is the second listing of antiquities to be offered in "MoneyTalks." With the tremendous response from the first listing, we strongly suggest that you call to reserve your selections immediately. Outside California toll free at (800) 421-0754; within California (213) 278-9740.

Every antiquity will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and a full color photo.

Please add $5.00 postage and handling for each Antiquity ordered.
